

History

Dean & Fulkerson was formed in 1988 to create a full-service corporate / management / entrepreneurial law firm to serve the business, professional and personal needs of each of its clients.

Dean & Fulkerson is dedicated to solving clients' legal problems in a prompt, efficient manner. It has assisted thousands of clients, including businesses, governmental bodies, and individuals to effectively resolve their legal problems.

The firm's experienced lawyers work closely with each client and use a common-sense approach to find practical solutions to legal problems at a reasonable cost. The attorneys:

- Carefully analyze each client's objectives
- Evaluate and present a variety of solutions
- Focus efforts to achieve the best possible result
- Utilize up-to-date technology
- Control costs
- Use appropriately experienced staff on all matters

As a result, when clients engage Dean & Fulkerson they know that they are in the hands of attorneys who are reliable counselors, knowledgeable risk assessors, zealous advocates and prudent business people.
